JUDGMENT

Balakrishnan Nair, J.

The petitioner has approached this Court, seeking police protection against respondents 3 to 6. He submits, he is apprehending threat to his life from them.

2. The learned Government Pleader, upon instructions, submitted that a crime has been registered against respondents 3 to 6 under various provisions of the I.P.C., based on Ext.P1 complaint filed by the petitioner. It is also submitted that the said respondents are absconding and therefore, there is no question of threat to the life of the petitioner from them.

3. Recording the submission of the learned Government Pleader, the writ petition is closed. If, in future, there is any threat to the life of the petitioner, he will be free to move the police for appropriate relief. In that event the police will look into the complaint of the petitioner and take action in accordance with law.
